Rotary District 1850 invites young Rotarian or non-Rotarian people to participate in a European excavation camp to meet other youngsters from different countries and to get an impression of the work at an archaeological excavation site – Kalkriese. It is probably the site of the Battle in the Teutoburg Forest at 9 after Christ. Camp members participate in the daily excavation fieldwork; they also do tours, visits and sports – and have fun. During the two weeks the camp members spend the nights in log houses and trailers at a farm near the excavation.

Clothing: Casual clothes; they should be usable for the excavation, besides rain clothes, shoes without heels.

Costs: Journey to Osnabrueck and back, meals during free days, pocket-money. All other costs will be paid by the organizers of the excavation.

Insurance: Every participant has to invest in a Health and Hospital Insurance.

Arrival at: Airport Muenster/Osnabrueck (FMO) meeting point or at the train station Osnabrueck.

Date of arrival: July, 19th, 2009

Departure at: Muenster-Osnabrueck International Airport (FMO) or at the train station Osnabrueck
