

Rotary Club Sarzana-Lerici

RC 12197 - District 2030 Italy – <http://nuke.rotarysarzanalerici.it/>

Tyrrhenian Life and Culture

Rotary Summer Camp – District 2030 Italy

Summary of the invitation:

The Sarzana-Lerici Rotary Club, in co-operation with clubs around the area, and with the endorsement of RI District 2030, invites one girl or a boy from Your Country (according to the camp's capacity) to an International RYE Camp during summer 2009.

Our Club is located in the Central-Northwestern part of Italy, close to the Tyrrhenian sea. The name of this part of the Mediterranean Sea comes from the Greek name for Etruscans, who were said to be emigrants from Lydia (Ancient Region of Anatolia) and led by prince Tyrrhenus.

The area is full of historic and touristic places: young participants will see towns and historical sights in the area, and take part into social and cultural activities (biking, hiking and water sports, visit of museums, etc.)

Camp Details:

Place and Date:

Sarzana (La Spezia) – Italy - From July 25th to August 8th, 2009

Participants:

Eight (8) participants, (4 boys and 4 girls), one from each country.
Participants will be accepted on a first come-first serve basis.

Age:

16-20, in strict accordance with general conditions for participation into the Rotary International Short-Term exchange program;

Arrival:

Preferred: Pisa International Airport (central Italy), on Friday, July 24th afternoon.
Participants are also welcome to arrive by train directly to the Italian Railway station in Sarzana (La Spezia). Only for those who cannot arrive as above, a pick up at the Milan-Malpensa International airport can be arranged on request.

Departure:

With the same means on Saturday, August 8th, 2009.

Accommodation:

With Rotarian families in our Club area (and possibly with local Hostels/Resorts).

Language:

English (good level)

Cost:

Participants are requested to pay a participation fee of 120,00 Euro (to be given by cash on arrival). Moreover, each participant should buy his/her own return tickets to Italy, and bring extra pocket money as needed during the stay.

Prelim. Programme:

The camp theme will be to experience the traditions of the Thyrrhenian area, meeting historical and modern lifestyle: there will be excursions to nearby places as well as sport activities, sightseeing, visits to museums and experiencing lifestyle and culture. We plan to spend at least one day in each of the historic cities of Pisa and Florence, and possibly Carrara, Parma, Lucca, and La Spezia.

A more detailed programme will be sent to participants in June 2009.

To know more about our area see:

<http://www.comune.sarzana.org/En/City/Default.htm>

Clothing/Other reqts.:

There are no special requirements, but all participants should be in good health, and smoking will not be allowed. A simple check-list will be sent to participants in June. Special needs from participants (vegetarian food, etc.) must be declared in advance.

Requested Documents:

1) Participation form; 2) Copy of ID or Passport; 3) Insurance valid throughout stay

Applications:

Standard Short Term Rotary International Youth Exchange Application forms, duly filled in and endorsed by your local RI representative (Club and District), must be forwarded before end of May 2009, to the following address:

Rotary Club Sarzana-Lerici (to the attention of RYE officer, e-mail acremoncini@alice.it).

“ Rotary has taught me how an ordinary citizen from a small town can be a world citizen.”

- Raj Ghuman, India